DIALOGUE ON DEVELOPMENT

SUPPORTED BY

The Swedish Program for ICT in Developing Regions

The Open Institute is partner of The Swedish Program for ICT in Developing Regions (SPIDER) to implement a project title “Dialogue on Development”.

Problem Identification:

When young people get involved in activities related to human rights and democracy, they often remain passive supporter rather than active decision-makers.

Youth feels they have a limited role to play in the election and democracy.

Rather than viewing themselves as major players with rights and responsible, they believe that the responsibility to bring about positive change and build democracy lies with their leaders.

Low media literacy contributes to lack of access information, which hinders informed participation of the citizens in democratic process, particularly in the elections.

Project objectives

❖ Overall Objective:

Creating an enabling environment for a series of dialogue on development to Youth and the Commune /Sangkat councilors in Phnom Penh and in five provinces through the use of ICT for effective participation in democratic process.

❖ Specific objective 1:

Youth and Commune/Sangkat councilors will have a better understanding on the right to access to information and able to use ICT tools for information sharing, social communication and for advocacy purpose.

❖ Specific objective 2:

The creation of open space for dialogue, debate, forum on election, for Youth, commune/sangkat councilors and other stakeholders.

❖ Specific objective 3:

A creation of information campaign through the use of ICT on elections, human rights, good governance and democracy related topic

Geography Area:

Geography areas: Phnom Penh, Battambang, Siem Riep, Kandal provinces for trainings dialogue, debate and social networking; the campaign will be organized in Kampong Chhnang and Kratie provinces. The reason why we select the above mentioned geography area is that PP, BTB, SR and Kandal provinces are the place that have high density of population and have enough facilities: place for training/meeting, internet access, ect. Kompong Chhnang and Kratie located Youth Club partner of KYSD

Partner organization/institution:

- 1) Voice of Democracy or CCIM (VOD)
- 2) Khmer Youth for Social Development (KYSD)
- 3) People Health for Development Association (PHD)

Target Group:

Direct beneficiaries: 574 Youth of 30 universities and its branch in Phnom Penh (PP), Battambang (BTB), Siem Riep (SR), and 100 Youth Club members in Kompong Chhnang (KPChnang) and Kratie provinces. Those 574 youth will involve in ICT training and training on access to information, in dialogue, debate, campaign and join in social networking.

24 Commune councilors from 15 Sangkat of all 9 districts in Phnom Penh, 2 in Battambang, 2 in Siem Riep and 2 in Kandal provinces. They will be involved also in ICT training and training on access to information, in dialogue, debate and seminar.

Indirect beneficiaries will be students in those 30 universities in Phnom Penh and its branch in the above mentioned provinces, and people live in commune /sangkat in the area of project intervention.

Project Activities:

There are three components in this project: Trainings, Dialogues on Democracy, and Democracy information campaign.

A. Training:

- 1) 2 Trainings on Right to Access to Information
- 2) 2 Citizen Journalist
- 3) 2 IEC Training in PP

B. Dialogue on Democracy:

- 1) 2 Forums for Youth and Councilors to discuss on their role in promoting good governance, and participation in election process.
- 2) 4 Awareness raising workshop on the use of ICT by Youth for better participation in Democracy process in Cambodia.
- 3) TV Students debate on human right, democracy, good governance.
- 4) 14 Series of on Air Radio Show on Youth and citizen participation in democracy process (VOD), and rebroadcast in haft an hour.
- 5) Student debate and radio talk show (live) in PP, BTB, and Siem Riep.
- 6) 1 Seminar to publicize the result of discussion in forum and debates.

Welcome

Welcome to the PHD Blog! Here you can find all the information what the People Health Development Association stands for.

PHD is a non-political, secular, non-profit, local non-governmental organization (LNGO). It was established by a group of youth and students. PHD not only works with young people, but also for young people in attempt to establish a positive social change by improving and promoting participation in Cambodian social issues. PHD works with the Cambodian government and local communities to promote sustainable development, poverty reduction, and positive attitudes regarding human rights, gender relations, health education and youth empowerment.

By making the youth aware of Cambodian social issues they want to provide the youth basic knowledge about sexual and reproductive health, such as prevention and protection from disease, and also knowledge about gender equality and gender based violence. So in the end they can improve the quality of life of all people.

Please keep visiting this blog and you will get updated about the latest PHD projects and activities that is going on here in Cambodia. If you have questions or want to know more
